

Call for Presenters

Natural Resource Restoration Conference

Restoration Topics of Interest—

Restoring ecological function, novel systems, restoring resilience, politics of restoration, deciding restoration scale and desired community, timeline: when are we done?, providing opportunities for succession, monitoring and documentation...others???

Seeking Presenters who will—

Share experiences, expertise, and best practices; impart NEW information, showcase creative programs or services, demonstrate innovative ideas and solutions, enhance the knowledge, skills, and abilities natural resource professionals.

Conference Format—

- 30 minute oral presentations with 15 minutes for Q & A.
- Breakout sessions for one hour discussion with subject expert and moderator.
- Poster presentations are welcome.

Your Audience will include—

Resource managers, consultants, educators, students, and conservationists.

Sponsored by—

Natural Resource Continuing Education Consortium and contributing agencies:

- Leech Lake Division of Resource Management
- MNDNR
- USFWS
- Bemidji State University Center for Research and Innovation

October 12, 2010

Located at:

Bemidji State University's Beaux Arts Ballroom

Please submit abstracts to Michelle Prosser to mprosser@bemidjistate.edu by March 19, 2010 indicating if you wish to present in a 30 minute session, conduct a breakout discussion, or present a poster.

Art and design by Susan Kedzie, Leech Lake Division of Resource Management